In terms of the shares that can be repurchased by the Corporation,

- (1). shall the repurchase not be in the manner of marketing or bidding, the price shall not be more than a certain maximum limit.
- (2). shall the repurchase be in the manner of bidding, the Corporation must send out the bidding advice to all shareholders with no bias.

Article 34. When the repurchase of the shares is in the manner of agreement outside a security exchange market, a shareholders meeting shall be convened in advance to approve it in accordance with the Articles of Association. As approved by the shareholders meeting in the same manner in advance, the Corporation may cancel or change the fore mentioned signed agreement, or abstain all the rights demonstrated in the agreement.

The forementioned agreement on repurchasing of the shares includes (but not limited to) the rights and obligations agreed to repurchase the shares.

The Corporation shall not transfer the agreement on shares repurchasing or any rights demonstrated in the agreement.

As to the Corporation having the right to repurchase the shares, shall the repurchase not be in the manner of marketing or bidding, the price shall not be more than a certain maximum limit; shall the repurchase be in the manner of bidding, the Corporation must send out the bidding advice to all the shareholders with no bias.

App
3-8(1)(2)

Article 35. When the Corporation repurchases the shares in accordance with Article 32 of this Articles of Association, cancellation subject to Item 1 shall be gone through within 10 days as from the repurchasing day or before the deadline stipulated by laws, administrative regulations and provisions of listing countries (regions); transfer or cancellation subject to Item 2 and 4 shall be gone through within 6 months or before the deadline stipulated by laws, administrative regulations and provisions of listing countries (regions), and the registration of change shall be processed at the original registration department for the Corporation.

The total par value of the cancelled shares shall be deducted from the registered capital of the Corporation.

The Corporation shall make a public notice in accordance with overseas and SEHK regulations (if applicable) after the capital deduction and registration change are completed.

Article 36. Unless the Corporation has already entered the liquidation stage, it must comply with the following provisions in repurchasing its issued and outstanding shares;

1. Where the Corporation repurchases shares at their par value, the amount thereof shall be deducted from the book balance of distributable profit and/or from the proceeds of a fresh share issue made to repurchase the old shares;
2. Where the Corporation repurchases shares at a price higher than their par value, the portion corresponding to their par value shall be deducted from the book balance of distributable profit and/or from the proceeds of a fresh share issue made to repurchase the old shares; and the portion in excess of the par value shall be handled according to the following methods:
 - (1) Where the shares repurchased were issued at their par value, the amount shall be deducted from the book balance of distributable profit;
 - (2) Where the shares repurchased were issued at a price higher than their par value, the amount shall be deducted from the book balance of distributable profit and/or from the proceeds of a fresh share issue made to buy back the old shares; however, the amount deducted from the proceeds of the fresh share issue may not exceed the total premium obtained at the time of issuance of the old shares nor may it exceed the amount in the Corporation's premium account or capital common reserve account(if applicable) (including the premiums from the fresh share issue) at the time of repurchase;
3. The sums paid by the Corporation for the purposes set forth below shall be paid out of the Corporation's distributable profits;
 - (1). acquisition of the right to repurchase its own shares

Article 50. Any shareholder who is registered in the register of shareholders or requires his name to be entered into the register of shareholders may apply to the Corporation for issuance of a replacement certificate in respect of such shares (Relevant Shares) if his share certificate (Original Share Certificate) is lost. As to the bearer of warrant, the Corporation shall not issue a new warrant to replace the old one unless it is convinced that the old one is destroyed.

Applications for the replacement of share certificates from holders of domestic investment shares that have lost their certificates shall be dealt with in accordance with Article 144 of the Company Law.

Applications for the replacement of share certificates from holders of foreign investment shares listed outside the People's Republic of China who have lost their certificates may be dealt with in accordance with the laws, securities exchange regulations and other relevant regulations of the place where the original register of holders of foreign investment shares listed outside the People's Republic of China is kept.

Where holders of foreign investment shares of a company listed outside the People's Republic of China, which is listed in Hong Kong, apply for replacement of their certificates after losing their certificates, such replacement shall comply with the following requirements:

1. The applicant shall submit the application in the form prescribed by the Corporation accompanied by a notarial certificate or statutory declaration. The notarial certificate or statutory declaration shall include the applicant's reason for the application, the circumstances and proof of the loss of the share certificate and a declaration that no other person may require registration as a shareholder in respect of the Relevant Shares;
2. Before the Corporation decides to issue a replacement share certificate, it should ensure that no other person other than the applicant has made a declaration regarding the lost shares certificate;
3. If the Corporation decides to issue a replacement share certificate to the applicant, it shall publish a public announcement of its intention to do so in the newspapers or periodicals designated by the board of directors; the period of the public announcement shall be 90 days, during which such announcement shall be published repeatedly at least once every 30 days;
4. Before publishing the public announcement of its intention to issue a replacement share certificate, the Corporation shall submit a copy of the announcement to be published to the securities exchange where it is listed and may proceed with publication after having received a reply from the securities exchange confirming that the announcement has been displayed in the securities exchange. The Corporation shall display the public announcement in the securities exchange for a period of 90 days.

If the application for issuance of a replacement share certificate was made without consent of the registered holder of the Relevant Shares, the Corporation shall send to such shareholder a photocopy of the public announcement that it intends to publish by post or e-mail;

5. At the expiration of the 90-day period provided for in Items 3 and 4 hereof, if the Corporation has not received any objection to the issuance of a replacement share certificate from any person, it may issue a replacement share certificate according to the application of the applicant;
6. When the Corporation issues a replacement share certificate under this Article, it shall immediately cancel the original share certificate and record such cancellation and the issuance of the replacement share certificate in the register of shareholders;
7. All expenses of the Corporation for the cancellation of the original share certificate and the issuance of a replacement share certificate shall be borne by the applicant. The Corporation shall be entitled to refuse to take any action until the applicant has provided reasonable security.
8. The newspapers or periodicals concerning issuing a replacement share certificate under the Item 3 of this Article shall at least be in both Chinese and English in Hong Kong.

Article 51. After the Corporation has issued a replacement share certificate in accordance with this Articles of Association, it shall not delete from the register of shareholders the name of a bona fide purchaser of the replacement share certificate mentioned above or of a shareholder that is subsequently registered as the owner of the shares (provided that he is a bona fide purchaser).

Article 52. The Corporation shall not be liable for any damages suffered by any person from the cancellation of the original share certificate or the issuance of the replacement share certificate, unless the claimant can prove fraud on the part of the Corporation.

Chapter 7 Rights and Obligations of Shareholders

Article 53. The Corporation's shareholders are holders that lawfully hold shares of the Corporation and whose names are entered in the register of shareholders.

Shareholders shall enjoy rights and have obligations according to the category and number of shares held by them. Holders of shares of the same category shall enjoy equal rights and have equal obligations.

In terms of co-holders, if one of them deceased, the remaining holders shall be deemed as the owner of the shares, and the board of directors has the right, for the purpose of amending the register of shareholders, to ask for a dead certificate which is deemed to be reasonable by the co-holders. As for the co-holders, only the one listed first in the register of shareholders has the rights to receive the shares and the Corporation notification, attend shareholder's general meeting and exercise the voting right. Any notification reached to this co-holder shall be deemed to be a notification to all the other co-holders.

Article 54. When 2 or more people are registered as co-holders of a certain share, they shall be subject to the following provisions.

1. The Corporation has no obligations to go through the registration procedures for 4 holders as co-holders of a certain share.
2. All the co-holders of a certain share shall be responsible, either independently or jointly, for the expense payable to the share.
3. If one of them died, the remaining holders shall be deemed as the owner of the shares, and the board of directors has the right, for the purpose of amending the register of shareholders, to ask for a dead certificate which is deemed to be reasonable by the co-holders; and
4. As for the co-holders, only the one listed first in the register of shareholders has the rights to receive the shares and the Corporation notification, attend shareholder's general meeting and exercise the voting right. Any notification reached to this co-holder shall be deemed to be a notification to all the other co-holders.

If any of the co-holders of a certain share issues a receipt concerning dividends, bonus or return of capital distributed to the bank, it shall also be deemed as an effective receipt from all the co-holders to the Corporation.

Article 55. Holders of ordinary shares of the Corporation shall enjoy the following rights:

1. Collect dividends and other profit distributions on the basis of the number of shares held by them;
2. Participate or to appoint proxies to participate in shareholders' meetings and exercise voting rights;

3. Supervise and control the Corporation's business activities, and raise suggestions and enquiries;
4. Transfer shares in accordance with laws, administrative regulations and the Corporation's Articles of Association;
5. Obtain relevant information in accordance with the Articles of Association of the Corporation, which shall include:
 - (1) Articles of Association of the Corporation, after payment of a charge to cover costs;
 - (2) being entitled to browse and make a copy, after payment of reasonable charges, of:
 - 1) all parts of the register of shareholders;
 - 2) personal information on the directors, supervisors, manager and other senior management staff of the Corporation, including:
 - (a) current and previous names and aliases;
 - (b) main address (domicile);
 - (c) nationality;
 - (d) full-time and all other part-time occupations and duties;
 - (e) identification documents and their numbers.
 - 3) the status of the Corporation 's share capital;
 - 4) reports of the aggregate par value, number of shares, and highest and lowest prices of each category of shares bought back by the Corporation since the last fiscal year as well as all the expenses paid by the Corporation therefore; and
 - 5) the minutes of shareholders' meetings;
6. Participate in the distribution of the remaining assets of the Corporation according to their shareholding when the Corporation is terminated or liquidated; and
7. Other rights conferred by laws, administrative regulations and the Corporation's Articles of Association.

When shareholders make a request for consulting the relevant information or asking for the document mentioned above, a written notification shall be made in advance and the Corporation shall provide these as required without delay.

Article 56. The Corporation shall protect the lawful rights and interests of the shareholders' and treat them fairly. The Corporation shall not freeze or impair the legal rights and interests of a beneficiary (either direct or indirect) from the shares only because he does not disclose his rights and interests to the Corporation.

When the lawful rights and interests of the shareholders' are encroached on, they may ask for the cease of encroachment and apply an indemnity for the loss in accordance with laws, administrative regulations and the Article of Association.

Article 57. Holders of ordinary shares of the Corporation shall have the following obligations:

1. To abide by the Articles of Association of the Corporation;
2. To pay subscription fees on the basis of the shares subscribed by them and the method of capital injection;
3. Other obligations imposed by laws, administrative regulations and the Corporation's Articles of Association.

Shareholders shall not bear any liability for further contribution to share capital other than the conditions agreed to by the subscriber of the relevant shares on subscription.

Article 58. In addition to obligations imposed by laws, administrative regulations or the listing rules of the securities exchange on which the shares of the Corporation are listed, controlling shareholders may not, in the exercise of their shareholders' powers, make decisions prejudicial to the interests of all or part of the shareholders as a result of the exercise of their voting rights on the issues set forth below:

1. Relieving a director or supervisor of the responsibility to act honestly in the best interest of the Corporation;
2. Approving a director or supervisor (for his own or another person's benefit) of depriving the Corporation of its assets in any way, including (but not limited to) any opportunities that are favorable to the Corporation

3. Approving a director or supervisor (for his own or another person's benefit) of depriving other shareholders of their rights or interests, including (but not limited to) rights to distributions and voting rights, unless pursuant to a restructuring of the Corporation submitted to and adopted by the shareholders' general meeting in accordance with the Articles of Association.

Article 59. For the purposes of the preceding Article, the term “controlling shareholder” shall refer to a person that satisfies any of the following conditions:

1. He, acting alone or in concert with others, has the power to elect more than half number of the directors;
2. He, acting alone or in concert with others, has the power to exercise or control the exercise of 30% or more of the Corporation's voting rights;
3. He, acting alone or in concert with others, holds 30% or more of the issued and outstanding shares of the Corporation; or
4. He, acting alone or in concert with others, actually controls the Corporation in any other manner.

For the purpose of this Article, the term “acting in concert with others” shall refer to the act of two persons or above who reach the agreement (either spoken or written) on aggregating the voting right though one of them so as to achieve or consolidate the purpose of controlling the Corporation.

Chapter 8 Shareholders' General Meeting

Article 60. The shareholders' general meeting shall be the organ of authority of the Corporation and shall exercise the functions and powers according to law.

Article 61. The shareholders' general meeting shall exercise the following functions and powers:

1. Decide on the business policies and discuss crucial investment plans of the Corporation which may be examined and approved by the shareholders' general meeting;

2. Elect and replace directors and decide on matters concerning the remuneration of directors;
3. Elect and replace the supervisors who are to be appointed from among the shareholders' representatives and decide on matters concerning the remuneration of supervisors;

14. Examine the motions raised by the shareholders' (either independent or joint) representing 3% or more of the Corporation's voting shares; and
15. Other matters those laws, administrative regulations and the Corporation's Articles of Association require to be resolved by the shareholders' general meeting.

Article 62. Without the prior approval of the shareholders' general meeting, the Corporation may not conclude any contact with any person other than a director, supervisor, manager or other senior management staff of the Corporation for the delegation of the whole business management or part of the important business management of the Corporation to that person.

Article 63. Shareholders' general meetings shall include annual shareholders' meetings and extraordinary shareholders' meetings. Shareholders' general meetings shall be convened by the board of directors. Annual meetings shall be convened once a year and shall be held within six months following the preceding fiscal year.

The board of directors shall convene an extraordinary shareholders' meeting within two months of the occurrence of any of the following circumstances:

1. The number of directors is less than the number provided for in the Company Law or less than two-thirds prescribed in the Articles of Association of the Corporation;
2. The losses of the Corporation that have not been made up reach one-third of the total share capital;
3. Shareholders holding 10% or more of the Corporation's voting shares required in writing an extraordinary shareholders' general meeting to be convened;
4. The board of directors considers that there is a need or the board of supervisors proposes a meeting;
5. More than half of independent board of directors (two at least) propose a meeting; or,
6. More than half of external supervisors (two at least) propose a meeting.

Article 64. When the Corporation is to hold a shareholders' general meeting, it shall issue a written notice 45 days (including the meeting day, but excluding the day when the notice is sent out) prior to the meeting informing all the registered shareholders of the matters to be examined at the meeting as well as the date and place of the meeting. Shareholders that intend to attend the shareholders' general meeting shall, within 20 days (excluding the meeting day, the same with following) prior to the meeting deliver a written reply to the Corporation on the meeting attendance.

Article 65. When the Corporation is to hold an annual shareholders' general meeting, shareholders(either independently or jointly) holding 3% or more (including 3%) of the total number of the Corporation's voting shares shall be entitled to propose new motions in writing to the Corporation. The Corporation shall include in the agenda for the meeting the matters in the motions that fall within the scope of duties of the shareholders' general meeting. But the motions shall reach the Corporation 10 days prior to the proceeding meeting notice is made.

Article 66. Based on the written replies received 20 days prior to a shareholders' general meeting, the Corporation shall calculate the number of voting shares represented by the shareholders intending to attend the meeting. If the number of voting shares represented by the shareholders intending to attend the meeting is more than half of the total number of the Corporation's voting shares, the Corporation may hold the shareholders' general meeting. If not, the Corporation shall within five days inform the shareholders once again of the matters to be examined at the meeting as well as the date and place of the meeting in the form of a public announcement. Upon notification by public announcement, the Corporation may hold the shareholders' general meeting.

Extraordinary shareholders' general meeting may not decide on matters not specified in the notice or announcement.

Article 67. The notice of a shareholders' general meeting shall meet the following requirements:

1. it shall be made in writing;
2. it shall specify the place, date and time of the meeting;
3. it shall specify the share registration date of the shareholders who are eligible to attend the meeting
4. it shall describe the matters to be discussed at the meeting;
5. it shall provide to the shareholders the information and explanation necessary for them to make an informed decision on the matters to be discussed. This principal shall apply (but not limit) when the Corporation proposes a merger, buy-back of shares, reorganization of share capital or other restructuring, it shall provide the specific conditions and contract (if any) of the transaction under discussions and earnestly explain the cause and result of the transaction;
6. it shall disclose the nature and extent of conflict of interests, if any, of any director, supervisor, manager or other senior management staff in any matter to be discussed; and provide an explanation of the difference, if any, between the way in which the matter to be discussed would affect such director, supervisor, manager or other senior management staff in his capacity as shareholder and the way in which such matter would affect other shareholders of the same category;

7. it shall contain the full text of any special resolution proposed to be adopted at the meeting;
8. it shall contain a conspicuous statement that shareholders entitled to attend and vote have the right to entrust one or more proxies to attend and vote on their behalf and that such proxy need not be a shareholder; and
9. it shall state the written reply of the potential attendants and the time and place for the delivery of the meeting's proxy's forms.
10. it shall prepare a regular contact form which contains the names and telephone numbers of the attendants.

Article 68. The notice of a shareholders' general meeting shall be delivered to the shareholders (whether or not entitled to vote thereat) by assigned persons or pre-paid mail to the recipient's address shown in the register of shareholders. For holders of domestic investment shares, the notice of a shareholders' general meeting may also be given by public announcement.

The public announcement referred to in the preceding paragraph shall be published in one or more newspapers or periodicals designated by the State Council authorities in charge of securities during the period between 45 and 50 days before the meeting is held. Once the announcement is made, all holders of domestic investment shares shall be deemed to have received the notice of the relevant shareholders' meeting.

Article 69. A meeting and the resolutions adopted thereat shall not be invalidated as a result of the accidental omission to give notice of the meeting to, or the failure of receiving such notice by, a person entitled to receive such notice.

Article 70. Any shareholder entitled to attend and vote at a shareholders' meeting shall have the right to appoint one or more persons (who need not be shareholders) as his proxies to attend and vote on his behalf. Such proxy may exercise the following rights according to his entrustment by the shareholder:

1. the shareholder's right to speak at the shareholders' general meeting;
2. the right to require by himself or in conjunction with others to make a resolution by voting;

3. the right to vote by raising hands or ballot, except that if a shareholder has appointed more than one proxy, such proxies may only exercise their voting rights by ballot.

If the shareholder is an Acknowledged Settlement Department or its proxy (hereinafter referred to as “Acknowledged Settlement Department”) as defined by the Securities and Futures Ordinance (Chapter 571 of Hong Kong laws), the shareholder may authorize such person(s) whom he thinks of suitable to attend any shareholders’ general meeting and/or any classified shareholders’ meeting; however, the written instrument shall specify the number and category of shares which such persons are liable to; such person(s) authorized shall have the right to exercise functions and power on behalf of Acknowledged Settlement Department(or its proxies), as if the person(s) is/are shareholder(s) of the Corporation.

Article 71. Shareholders shall entrust their proxies by written instruments that shall be signed by the entrusting parties or such proxies.

Corporate shareholders shall attend the meeting in the form of the legal representative or their proxies; if the legal representative is to attend the meeting, his Identity Card, the effective evidence to prove his legal representative’s identity as well as the share certificate shall be presented.; if the proxy is to attend the meeting, his Identity Card, the written instrument signed by the legal representative as well the share certificate shall be presented.

Article 72. The written instrument which entrusts proxies to attend the shareholders’ general meeting shall include the provisions below:

1. Name of the proxy.
2. Whether having voting right.
3. The instruction of voting for, against or waiver respectively with regard to each scheduled discussion.
4. Whether having the voting right with regard to the temporary proposal put forward to at the meeting; if so, a conspicuous instruction on which kind of voting right shall be exercised.
5. The date of issuance and period of validity of the written instrument.

6. The signature (seal) of the authorizer or the proxy; if the authorizer is Corporation Shareholder, the corporation seal shall be stamped on or signed by its board of directors or its proxy.

Article 73. The instrument appointing a voting proxy shall be placed at the domicile of the Corporation or at such other place as specified in the notice of the meeting within 24 hours prior to the meeting at which the proxy is authorized to vote or within 24 hours prior to the specified time of the vote. Where the instrument is signed by another person authorized by the entrusting party, the power of attorney or other document authorizing the signature shall be notarized. The notarized power of attorney or other authorizing document shall be placed together with the instrument appointing the voting proxy at the domicile of the Corporation or at such other place as specified in the notice of the meeting.

Where the entrusting party is a legal person, its legal representative or the person authorized by resolution of its board of directors or other decision-making body shall be entitled to attend the Corporation 's shareholders' meetings as the representative of such legal person.

If the shareholder is an Acknowledged Settlement Department or its proxy (hereinafter referred to as “Acknowledged Settlement Department”) as defined by relevant laws and regulations of the place where the stock is listed, the shareholder may authorize such person(s) whom he thinks of suitable to attend any shareholders’ general meeting and/or any classified shareholders’ meeting; however, the written instrument shall specify the number and category of shares which such persons are liable to; such person(s) authorized shall have the right to exercise functions and power on behalf of Acknowledged Settlement Department(or its proxies), as if the person(s) is/are shareholder(s) of the Corporation.

Article 74. Any form issued by the board of directors of the Corporation to the shareholders for the appointment of proxies shall give the shareholders free choice to instruct their proxies to cast an affirmative or negative vote and enable the shareholders to give separate instructions on each matter to be voted during discussions at the meeting. The instrument of appointment shall specify that in the absence of instructions from the shareholder, the proxy may vote as he thinks fit.

Article 75. Where the entrusting party has deceased, lost capacity for acts, retracted the proxy or the signed power of attorney prior to the voting, or the relevant shares have been transferred prior to the voting, a vote given in accordance with the terms of instrument of proxy shall remain valid as long as the Corporation did not receive a written notice of the event before the commencement of the relevant meeting.

Article 76. Resolutions of the shareholders' general meeting can be ordinary resolutions or special resolutions. Ordinary resolutions of the shareholders' general meeting shall be passed by more than half of the voting rights held by the shareholders (including proxies) present at the meeting.

Special resolutions of the shareholders' general meeting shall be passed by more than two-thirds of the voting rights held by the shareholders (including proxies) present at the meeting.

The shareholders (or its proxies) present at the meeting shall vote either “for” or “against” with regard to each discussion that needs to be voted on. When the Corporation calculates the votes, the waiver shall not be counted in.

Article 77. When shareholders (including proxies) vote at the shareholders' general meeting, they shall exercise their voting rights according to the number of voting rights that they represent. Each share shall carry one vote.

Article 78. Votes of the shareholders' general meeting shall be taken by raising hands for resolutions, unless the following persons require voting by ballot before or after any vote by raising hands for resolutions:

1. the chairman of the meeting;
2. at least two shareholders with voting rights or their proxies; or
3. one or several shareholders (including proxies) holding totally or separately 10% or more of the shares carrying the right to vote at the meeting.

Unless somebody proposes voting by ballot, the chairman of the meeting shall declare whether the proposal has been adopted according to the results of the vote by raising hand, and shall record the same in the minutes of the meeting, which shall serve as final evidence without having to state the number or proportion of the votes for or against resolution adopted at the meeting.

The demand for a vote by ballot may be withdrawn by the person who made it.

Article 79. If the matter demanded to be voted upon by ballot is the election of the chairman or the adjournment of the meeting, a ballot shall be taken immediately. If a ballot is demanded for any other matter, such ballot shall be taken at the time decided upon by the chairman and the meeting may proceed with the discussion of other matters; the result of the ballot shall still be regarded as a resolution passed at that meeting.

Article 80. When a ballot is held, shareholders (including proxies) having the right to two or more votes need not use all of their voting rights in the same way.

Article 81. When the number of votes for and against a resolution is equal, whether the vote is taken by raising hands or by ballot, the chairman of the meeting shall be entitled to one additional vote.

Article 82. The following matters shall be resolved by way of an ordinary resolution of the shareholders' general meeting:

1. work reports of the board of directors and the board of supervisors;
2. plans for the distribution of profits and making up of losses drafted by the board of directors;
3. removal of members of the board of directors and the board of supervisors, their remuneration and method of payment of their remuneration;
4. the Corporation's annual budget, final accounts, balance sheet, profit statement and other financial statements;
5. the extension or termination of the contract with an Accounting Office; and
6. matters other than those that laws, administrative regulations or the Corporation's Articles of Association require to be passed by way of a special resolution.

The remuneration mentioned in the proceeding Item3 includes (but not limited to) the remuneration payable to relative board of directors and supervisors when they lose their positions or retire from the Corporation.

Article 83. The following matters shall be resolved by way of a special resolution of the shareholders' general meeting:

1. Increase or reduction of the Corporation share capital and issuance of any category of shares, warrants or other similar securities;
2. Issuance of Corporation's bond;
3. Issuance of other securities and listing plan;
4. Division, merger, dissolution and liquidation of the Corporation;
5. Amendment of the Articles of Association of the Corporation;
6. Repurchase of the Corporation's share
7. Warrants stimulating plan;
8. Buying or selling significant assets of the Corporation within one year or giving a guarantee having the amount of more than 3% that of the total assets in the latest audit;
9. Recall of the board of directors not having finished their term of service; and
10. Other matters that, as resolved by way of an ordinary resolution of the shareholders' general meeting, may have a significant impact on the Corporation and require adoption by way of a special resolution.

Any resolution passed through the Shareholder' general meeting shall be pursuant to laws, administrative regulations and Articles of Association of the People's Republic of China.

Article 84. The proposal of candidate lists of board of directors and board of supervisors shall be decided by vote on shareholders' general meeting.

Article 85. The nomination methods and procedures of board of directors and board of supervisors are set below:

1. The shareholders holding 5 % or more of the total voting shares of the Corporation issued may make a written proposal to the shareholders' general meeting on the candidates of board of directors and candidates of board of supervisors (excluding supervisors selected from workers representatives). But the number of the candidates shall comply with regulations of this Articles of Association and shall not exceed the number as planned. The fore mentioned proposal from the shareholders shall be sent to the Corporation at 14 days prior to the commencement of the shareholder's general meeting;

2. The proposed name list of candidates of board of directors and candidates of board of supervisors (selected from representatives of shareholders) shall comply with the number as planned and be pursuant to the regulations of this Articles of Association.; the board of directors shall examine the competence of the candidates applying for the position of the board of directors; the board of supervisors shall examine the competence of the candidates applying for the position of board of supervisors; after examining and approving the candidates of board of directors and board of supervisors, a written proposal with regard to the resolution shall be made to the shareholders' general meeting;
3. Relevant written documents concerning candidates' inclination, the acceptance of the nomination as well as their personal information shall be made to the Corporation 7 days prior to the commencement of the shareholders' general meeting; the board of directors and board of supervisors shall provide the candidates' resumes and basic conditions to the shareholders;
4. At shareholders' general meeting, votes shall be cast for each candidate one by one for each director or supervisor candidate.
5. if there is any supplement of the candidates, the board of directors and board of supervisors shall make a proposal to the shareholders' general meeting for election and replacement;

Article 86. Shareholders requesting the convening of an extraordinary shareholders' general meeting or a meeting of shareholders of different categories shall proceed in accordance with the procedures set forth below:

1. two or more shareholders holding a total of 10% or more of the shares carrying the right to vote at the meeting sought to be held may sign one or more written requests of identical form and substance requesting the board of directors to convene an extraordinary shareholders' general meeting or a meeting of shareholders of different categories and stating the subject of the meeting. The board of directors shall convene the shareholders' general meeting or the meeting of shareholders of different categories as soon as possible after having received the above-mentioned written request. The shareholding referred to above shall be calculated as of the day on which the written request is made; and

2. if the board of directors fails to issue a notice of such a meeting within 30 days after having received the above-mentioned written notice, the shareholders who made such request may themselves convene the meeting within four months after the board of directors received the request. The procedures according to which they convene such meeting shall, to the extent possible, be identical to the procedures according to which shareholders' meetings are to be convened by the board of directors.

Where shareholders convene and hold a meeting because of the board of directors failed to hold such meeting pursuant to a request as mentioned above, the reasonable expenses incurred by such shareholders shall be borne by the Corporation and shall be deducted from the sums owed by the Corporation to the negligent directors.

Article 87. Shareholders' general meeting shall be convened and presided over by the chairman of the board. Where the chairman of the board cannot attend such a meeting for any reason, the meeting shall be convened and presided over by the (a) director elected by more than half of the board of directors.

Where board of directors can not or do not fulfill the obligation to convene shareholders' general meeting, board of supervisors shall take over without delay; where board of supervisors do not convene and preside over the meeting, the shareholder(s) (either independently or jointly) holding 10% of the total shares of the Corporation may convene and preside over the meeting on their own.

Article 88. The chairman of the meeting shall be responsible for deciding whether or not a resolution of the shareholders' general meeting has been passed. His decision shall be final and shall be announced at the meeting and recorded in the minutes of the meeting.

If the chairman of the meeting has any doubts about the result of a resolution put to the vote, he may count the number of votes cast. If the chairman of the meeting fails to count the votes, a shareholder or proxy attending the meeting who challenges the result announced by the chairman of the meeting shall have the right to request counting of votes immediately after such announcement, the chairman of the meeting shall immediately count the votes.

If counting of votes is held at a shareholders' general meeting, the result of the counting shall be recorded in the minutes of the meeting.

The minutes of the meeting and the attendance records signed by the attending shareholders and proxies shall be kept at the Corporation's domicile.

Article 89. If the chairman of the meeting has any doubts about the result of a resolution put to vote, he may count the number of votes cast. If the chairman of the meeting fails to count the votes, a shareholder or proxy attending the meeting who challenges the result announced by the chairman of the meeting shall have the right to request counting of votes immediately after such announcement, the chairman of the meeting shall immediately count the votes.

Article 90. If counting of votes is held at a shareholders' general meeting, the result of the counting shall be recorded in the minutes of the meeting.

The minutes of the meeting and the attendance records signed by the attending shareholders and proxies shall be kept at the Corporation's domicile.

Article 91. When the shareholders meeting examine and approve issues of connected transactions, shareholders who are connected shall not participate in the voting whereas their voting shares shall not be counted in the final votes calculation; the announcement on the resolution of shareholders' general meeting shall fully disclose the voting results from non-relevant shareholders.

Relevant shareholders shall abstain voluntarily, or an abstaining request may be made from other shareholders or shareholder representatives present at the shareholders' general meeting; where relevant shareholders cannot evade under special circumstances, the Corporation shall carry out the voting in accordance with normal procedures, but shall specify in the resolution of the shareholders' general meeting.

Shareholders must abstain their voting rights or shall be restricted to vote either "for" or "against" a certain resolution as stipulated by Listing Rules; any voting on the cost of violation of the rules or restrictions from the shareholders (or its proxies) shall not be counted in the final votes calculation.

Article 92. The shareholder's general meeting shall have a minute, where the following items shall be kept in record:

1. the proportion of voting shares on the shareholders' general meeting to the total shares of the Corporation;
2. the date and place where the meeting is to be convened;
3. chairman's name and the schedule of the meeting;
4. main points with regard to each matter to be discussed from spokespersons;
5. the result of each resolution;
6. the name list, the proportion of the shares born by shareholders and the content of the proposal to be specified with regard to each resolution made on the shareholder's proposal; and
7. any other content considered to be necessary on the shareholders' general meeting and stipulated by the regulations of this Articles of Association.

Article 93. The minute of the meeting, signed by the chairman, board of directors present and the recording secretary of the meeting, together with the register signed by the shareholders present and written instrument of the proxies, shall be kept in record at the Corporation's domicile by the secretary of board of director.

Article 94. Shareholders may examine photocopies of the minutes of meetings during the Corporation's office hours free of charge. If any shareholder demands from the Corporation a photocopy of relevant minutes of meetings, the Corporation shall send such photocopies within seven days of receiving payment of reasonable charges.

Article 95. The minutes of the shareholders' general meeting shall be kept in record forever.

Article 96. The lawyer employed by the board of directors of the Corporation may witness the shareholders' general meeting, and shall hand in a letter of opinion to the Corporation.

Chapter 9 Special Procedure on Classified Shareholders Voting

Article 97. Shareholders who hold different categories of shares shall be shareholders of different class.

Shareholders of different class shall enjoy rights and assume obligations in accordance with laws, administrative regulations and the Corporation's Articles of Association.

Article 98. If the Corporation intends to change or abrogate the rights of shareholders of different categories, it may do so only after such change or abrogation has been approved by way of a special resolution of the shareholders' general meeting and by a separate shareholders' meeting convened by the affected shareholders of different class in accordance with article 100 to 104.

The replacement or cancellation of shareholders rights arising from the amendment of laws, administrative regulations and listing provisions of the place where the shares are listed or the decision lawfully made by Overseas Supervision and Management Authority may not need to be approved by a shareholders' general meeting or a classified shareholder's meeting.

Article 99. The rights of shareholders of a certain category shall be deemed to have been changed or abrogated in the following conditions:

1. An increase or decrease in the number of shares of such class or an increase or decrease in the number of shares of a class having voting rights, distribution rights or other privileges equal or superior to those of the shares of such class;
2. A change of all or part of the shares of such class into shares of another class, a conversion of all or part of the shares of another class into shares of such class or the grant of the right to such change;
3. A removal or reduction of rights to accrued dividends or cumulative dividends attached to shares of such class;
4. A reduction or removal of a dividend preference or assets distribution preference during liquidation of the Corporation, attached to shares of such class;
5. An addition, removal or reduction of share conversion rights, options, voting rights, transfer rights, preemptive rights to rights issues or rights to acquire securities of the Corporation attached to shares of such class;

6. A removal or reduction of rights to receive amounts payable by the Corporation in a particular currency attached to shares of such class;
7. A creation of a new class of shares with voting rights, distribution rights or other privileges equal or superior to those of the shares of that class;
8. An imposition of restrictions or additional restrictions on the transfer or ownership of shares of such class;
9. An issuance of rights to subscribe for, or convert into, shares of such class or classes;
10. An increase in the rights and privileges of shares of another category;
11. Restructuring of the Corporation causes shareholders of different class to bear liability to different extents during the restructuring; or
12. An amendment or cancellation of the provisions of this article.

Article 100. Shareholders of the affected class, whether or not otherwise having the right to vote at shareholders' general meeting, shall have the right to vote at meetings of shareholders of different class in respect of matters referred to in Items (2) to (8) or (11) to (12) of Article 99, except that interested shareholders shall not have the right to vote at meetings of shareholders of different class.

For the purposes of the preceding paragraph, the term “interested shareholders” shall have the following meanings:

1. If the Corporation has made a buy-back offer to all shareholders in the same proportion or has bought back its own shares through open transactions on a securities exchange in accordance with Article 33 hereof, the controlling shareholders as defined in Article 59 hereof shall be “interested shareholders”;
2. If the Corporation has bought back its own shares by an agreement outside a securities exchange in accordance with Article 34 hereof, holders of share in relation to such agreement shall be “interested shareholders” ; or
3. Under a restructuring proposal of the Corporation, shareholders who will bear liability in a proportion smaller than that of the liability borne by other shareholders of the same category, or shareholders who have an interest in a restructuring proposal of the Corporation that is different from the interest in such restructuring proposal of other shareholders of the same category shall be “interested shareholders”

Article 101. Resolutions of a meeting of shareholders of different categories may be passed only by more than two-thirds of the voting rights of that category represented at the meeting in accordance with Article 102 hereof.

Article 102. When the Corporation is to hold a meeting of shareholders of different categories, it shall issue a written notice 45 days prior to the meeting informing all the registered shareholders of that category of the matters to be examined at the meeting as well as the date and place of the meeting. Shareholders that intend to attend the meeting shall, within 20 days prior to the day of the meeting, deliver a written reply to the Corporation on meeting attendance.

If the number of share carrying the right to vote at the meeting represented by the shareholders intending to attend the meeting is more than half of the total number of shares of that class carrying the right to vote at the meeting, the Corporation may hold the meeting of shareholders of different class. (1) provided by law;

(2) required in the public interest; or

(3) required in the own interest of such director, supervisor, manager or other senior officials of the Corporation.

Article 163. A director, a supervisor, the manager or other senior officials of the Corporation may not cite the following persons or organizations (“Connected Persons”) to do what such director, supervisor, manager or other senior officials may not do:

(i) the spouse or minor child of such director, supervisor, manager or other senior officials of the Corporation;

(ii) the trustee of a director, supervisor, manager or other senior officials of the Corporation or of any person referred in Item (1) hereof;

(iii) the partner of a director, supervisor, manager or other senior officials of the Corporation or of any person referred in Items (1) and (2) hereof;

(iv) the Corporation over which a director, supervisor, manager or other senior officials of the Corporation, alone or jointly with any person referred to in Items (1), (2) and (3) hereof or any other director, supervisor, manager or other senior officials of the Corporation, has actual control; and

(v) a director, a supervisor, the manager or other senior officials of a Corporation being controlled as referred to in Item (4) hereof.

Article 164. The obligation and credibility of the Corporation's directors, supervisors, manager and other senior officials does not necessarily cease with the termination of their office. Their confidentiality obligation in relation to the Corporation's trade secrets shall remain upon termination of their office. The term for which other obligations shall continue shall be decided upon in accordance with the principle of fairness, depending on the time lapse between the termination and the occurrence of the matter as well as the circumstances and conditions under which the relationship with the Corporation terminates.

Article 165. A director, a supervisor, the manager or other senior officials of the Corporation may be relieved from liability for a specific breach of obligations after the shareholders' general meeting has been informed, except in circumstances as specified in Article 47 hereof.

Article 166. If a director, a supervisor, the manager or other senior officials of the Corporation has directly or indirectly vested a material interest in a contract, transaction or arrangement concluded or planned by the Corporation (except his employment contract with the Corporation), he shall disclose the nature and extent of his interest to the board of directors at the earliest opportunity, whether or not the matter is normally subject to the approval of the board of directors.

Unless the interested director, supervisor, manager or other senior officials of the Corporation has disclosed such interest to the board of directors as required under the preceding paragraph hereof and the matter has been approved by the board of directors at a meeting in which he was not counted in the quorum and had refrained from voting, the Corporation shall have the right to void the contract, transaction or arrangement, except the other party is a bona fide party acting without knowledge of the breach of obligation by the director, supervisor, manager or other senior officials concerned.

A director, a supervisor, the manager or other senior officials of the Corporation shall be deemed to have an interest in any contract, transaction or arrangement in which a Connected Person of that director, supervisor, manager or other senior officials has an interest.

Where a director has an interest in any corporation involved in the matters decided by the board of directors, he shall not vote or be entrusted by other director vote to such resolution. The meeting may be held with the presence of more than half of the non-interest directors. The resolutions made by the meeting of the board of directors shall be adopted by more than half of the non-interest directors. Where the number of non-interest directors is less than three, the matters shall be submitted to the shareholders' meeting for reviewing.

Article 167. If a director, a supervisor, the manager or other senior officials of the Corporation gives a written notice to the board of directors before the conclusion of the contract, transaction or arrangement is first considered by the Corporation, stating that due to the contents of the notice, he has an interest in the contract, transaction or arrangement that may subsequently be made by the Corporation, such director, supervisor, manager or other senior officials of the Corporation shall be deemed for the purposes of the preceding Articles of this Part to have declared his interest, insofar as attributable to the scope stated in the notice.

Article 168.The Corporation may not in any manner pay tax on behalf of its directors, supervisors, manager or other senior officials.

Article 169.The Corporation may not directly or indirectly provide a loan or loan security for its directors, supervisors, manager or other senior officials, those of its parent Corporation, or Connected Persons of the above-mentioned persons.

The provisions of the preceding paragraph shall not apply to the following circumstances:

(i) the provision of a loan or loan security by the Corporation for a subsidiary of the Corporation;

(ii) the provision of a loan or loan security or other funds by the Corporation to a director, a supervisor, the manager or other senior officials of the Corporation under an employment contract approved by the shareholders' general meeting, so as to enable him to pay the expenses incurred for the sake of the Corporation or for the performance of his Corporation duties; and

(iii) the provision of a loan or loan security by the Corporation to a relevant director, a supervisor, the manager or other senior officials of the Corporation or to a Connected Person thereof on normal commercial terms, if the ordinary business scope of the Corporation includes the lending of money or the provision of loan security.

Article 170.A loan provided by the Corporation in violation of the preceding Article shall be immediately repayable by the recipient of the loan, regardless of the terms of the loan.

Article 171.The Corporation may not be forced to perform a loan security provided by the Corporation in violation of the first paragraph of Article 169, except:

(i) when the loan is provided to a affiliate of a director, a supervisor, the manager or other senior officials of the Corporation or its parent Corporation, the loan provider is not aware of the condition; and

(ii) the collateral provided by the Corporation has been lawfully sold by the loan provider to a bona fide purchaser.

Article 172.For the purposes of the preceding Article of this Part, the term “security” shall include an act whereby a guarantor assumes liability or provides assets to guarantee or secure the performance of obligations by an obligator.

Article 173.If a director, a supervisor, the manager or other senior officials of the Corporation breaches his obligations to the Corporation, the Corporation shall, in addition to any rights and remedies provided by laws and administrative regulations, have a right to:

- (i) require the relevant director, supervisor, manager or other senior officials to compensate for the losses sustained by the Corporation as a consequence of his dereliction of duty;
- (ii) rescind any contract or transaction concluded by the Corporation with the relevant director, supervisor, manager or other senior officials and contracts or with a third party (where such third party is aware or should be aware that the director, supervisor, manager or other senior officials representing the Corporation was in breach of his obligations to the Corporation);
- (iii) require the relevant director, supervisor, manager or other senior officials to surrender the gains derived from the breach of his obligations;
- (iv) recover any funds received by the relevant director, supervisor, manager or other senior officials that should have been received by the Corporation, including (but not limited to) commissions; and
- (v) require the relevant director, supervisor, manager or other senior officials to return the interest earned or possibly earned on the funds that should have been given to the Corporation.
- (vi) require the relevant director, supervisor, manager or other senior officials to return the interest earned from the acts against duty.

Article 174.The Corporation shall include a written contract with each director and supervisor of the Corporation concerning his emoluments. Such contract shall be approved by the shareholder' general meeting before it is entered into. The above-mentioned emoluments shall include:

- (i) emoluments in respect of his service as a director, supervisor or senior officials of the Corporation;
- (ii) emoluments in respect of his service as a director, supervisor or senior officials of a subsidiary of the Corporation;
- (iii) emoluments otherwise in connection with the management of the Corporation or any subsidiary thereof; and
- (iv) funds as compensation for his loss of office or retirement to the aforementioned directors and supervisors.

A director or supervisor may not sue the Corporation for his benefits due to him on the basis of the above-mentioned matters, except under a contract as mentioned above.

Article 175. The Corporation shall specify in the contract concluded with a director or supervisor of the Corporation concerning his emoluments that in the event of a takeover of the Corporation, a director or supervisor of the Corporation shall, subject to prior approval of the shareholders' general meeting, have the right to receive the compensation or other funds obtainable for loss of office or retirement. For the purposes of the preceding paragraph, the term “a takeover of the Corporation” shall refer to any of the following circumstances:

- (i) anyone makes a general offer to all the shareholders; or
- (ii) anyone makes a general offer so that the offeror becomes a controlling shareholder as defined in Article 59 hereof.

If the relevant director or supervisor has failed to comply with this Article, any fund received by him shall belong to those persons that have sold their shares as a result of their acceptance of the above-mentioned offer, and the expenses incurred in distribution of such fund on a pro rata basis shall be borne by the relevant director or supervisor and may not be paid out of such fund.

CHAPTER 15 FINANCIAL ACCOUNTING SYSTEM AND PROFIT

DISTRIBUTION

Article 176.The Corporation shall formulate its own financial and accounting system in accordance with laws, administrative regulations and China's accounting standards formulated by the State Council's department in charge of finance.

Article 177.The Corporation shall prepare financial reports at the end of each fiscal year. Such reports shall be examined and verified according to law.

Article 178.The fiscal year of the Corporation shall coincide with the calendar year, i.e. from January 1 to December on the Gregorian calendar.

Article 179.The Corporation shall adopt Renminbi as the standard accounting currency, account books prepared by the Corporation shall be written in Chinese.

Article 180.The board of directors of the Corporation shall place before the shareholders at each shareholders' general meeting such financial reports as relevant laws, administrative regulations and normative documents promulgated by the local government and the authorities-in-charge require the Corporation to prepare. The reports shall be verified.

Article 181.The financial reports of the Corporation shall be made available for inspection by shareholders 20 days prior to an annual shareholders' meeting. Each shareholder of the Corporation shall have the right to obtain a copy of the financial reports referred to in this Part.

The Corporation shall, within 21 days before the shareholders' annual meeting is held, submit (i) report of the board of directors, Balance Sheet (including documents that are required by relevant regulations to be attached to the Balance Sheet), Income Statement or Statement of Income and Expenditure or (ii) summary financial reports to each holder of foreign investment shares listed outside the People's Republic of China by e-mail or prepaid mail at the recipient's address shown in the register of shareholders.

Where the Corporation distributes summary financial report to H share holders, the Company Law and listing rules shall be followed and effective agreement (if any) shall be obtained. Delivering summary financial report extracted from the Corporation's annual financial report and the report of the board of directors with the means not prohibited by the Corporation Law, where the summaries and reports are consistent with application regulations in forms and contents, the holders of H shares shall be deemed complying with above mentioned regulations. Any holder of H share may, by sending written requests to the Corporation, ask the Corporation to deliver the complete copy of annual financial report and report of the board of directors besides the summary financial report.

Article 182.The financial statements of the Corporation shall be prepared not only in accordance with China's accounting standards, laws and regulations but also in accordance with international accounting standards or the accounting standards of the place(s) outside the People's Republic of China where shares of the Corporation are listed. If there are major differences in the financial statements prepared in accordance with these two sets of accounting standards, such differences shall be stated in notes appended to such financial statements. For purposes of the Corporation's distribution of after-tax profits in a given fiscal year, the smaller amount of after-tax profits shown in the above-mentioned two kinds of financial statements shall govern.

Article 183.Interim results or financial information published or disclosed by the Corporation shall be prepared in accordance with China's accounting standards, laws and regulations as well as international standards or the accounting standards of the place(s) outside the People's Republic of China where shares of the Corporation are listed.

Article 184.The Corporation shall publish four financial reports each fiscal year, namely an interim financial report within 45 days after the end of the first three, six and nine months of the fiscal year and an annual financial report within 90 days after the end of the fiscal year.

Article 185.The Corporation may not set up any account books other than the statutory account books.

Article 186.The capital common reserve shall include the following funds:

- (i) the premiums obtained from the issue of shares in excess of the par; and
- (ii) other revenue required by the State Council's department in charge of finance to be included in the capital common reserve.

Article 187.After the income tax is paid, the profit shall be distributed in the sequence of:

- (i) recovering the loss of the last year;
- (ii) drawing 10 percent of the profits as the Corporation's statutory common reserve.
- (iii) drawing discretionary common reserve; and
- (iv) paying for the shareholders' dividends

Corporation shall no longer be required to make allocations to their statutory common reserve once the aggregate amount of such reserve exceed 50% of their registered capital. Corporation may, if so resolved by the shareholder's meeting or the shareholder's general meeting, make allocations to the discretionary reserve.

Where a Corporation distributes its aftertax profits of the current year, it shall draw 10 percent of the profits as the Corporation's statutory common reserve. The Corporation may stop drawing if the accumulative balance of the common reserve has already accounted for over 50 percent of the Corporation's registered capital.

If the accumulative balance of the Corporation's statutory common reserve is not enough to make up for the losses of the Corporation of the previous year, the current year's profits shall first be used for making up the losses before the statutory common reserve is drawn therefrom according to the provisions of the preceding paragraph.

After the Corporation draws the statutory common reserve from the after-tax profits, it may, upon a resolution made by the shareholders' meeting, draw a discretionary common reserve from the after-tax profits. After the losses have been made up and common reserves have been drawn, a limited liability Corporation shall distribute the remaining profits according to Article 35 of this Law; a joint stock limited Corporation shall distribute the remaining profits in light of the proportions of shares held by shareholders, unless it is not permitted in the Articles of Association to distribute profits according to the proportions of shares held by shareholders.

If the shareholders' meeting, shareholders' assembly or board of directors distributes the profits by violating the provisions of the preceding paragraph before the losses are made up and the statutory common reserves are drawn, the profits distributed must be refunded to the Corporation.

No profit may be distributed for the Corporation's shares held by this Corporation.

Article 188.The Corporation may distribute dividends in the following forms:

- (i) cash; and/or
- (ii) shares.

The dividend or other payment made by the Corporation to the holders of domestic shares shall be paid in Renminbi. The dividend or other payment made by the Corporation to the holders of foreign shares shall be priced and announce in Renminbi and paid in Hong Kong dollars. The foreign currency needed by the Corporation in paying dividend or other payment to the holders of foreign shares shall be transacted in accordance with relevant regulations of foreign exchange management of China.

Any capital paid before the call for share capital is entitled to interest. The shareholders have no right to receive dividends declared for the prepaid share capital. The Corporation shall be entitled to forfeit any unclaimed dividend after relevant applicable period expiries. The power to forfeit such unclaimed dividends shall only be exercised after applicable limitation period prescribed in relevant laws and / or regulations and / or the relevant ordinances expires.

Article 189.The Corporation shall appoint recipient agents for holders of foreign investment shares listed outside the People's Republic of China to collect on behalf of the relevant shareholders the dividends distributed and other funds payable in respect of foreign investment shares listed outside the People's Republic of China.

The recipient agents appointed by the Corporation shall meet the requirements of the laws of the place(s), or the relevant regulations of the securities exchange(s), where the shares are listed. The recipient agents of the holders of foreign investment shares listed outside the People's Republic of China appointed by the Corporation shall be trust companies registered in accordance with Trustee Clause.

Article 190

- (i) The Corporation may exercise authority to stop delivering dividend warrant that is not claimed. This authority shall only be exercised after the dividend warrant has not be claimed for twice or the dividend warrant is returned when it is failed to be delivered to the recipient for the first time.

(ii) The Corporation shall not exercise such authority for selling the shares of the holders cannot be reached unless following regulations are met.

(a) relevant shares have been distributed with three times of dividends within 12 years and the dividends have not been claimed in such period;

(b) after the period of 12 years, the intent of selling such shares shall be published with announcement and notified to the Stock Exchange of Hong Kong after approved by the State Council securities supervisory organization.

CHAPTER 16 EMPLOYMENT OF AN ACCOUNTING OFFICE

Article 191. The Corporation shall employ an independent accounting office that complies with relevant State regulations to audit the annual financial reports and other financial reports of the Corporation.

The first accounting office of the Corporation may be employed by the inaugural meeting prior to the first annual shareholders' meeting. Such accounting office shall hold office until the conclusion of the first annual shareholders' meeting.

If the inaugural meeting does not exercise its power under the preceding paragraph, the board of directors shall exercise such power.

Article 192. The term of employment of an accounting office employed by the Corporation shall be between the end of the annual shareholders' meeting of the Corporation and the end of the next annual shareholders' meeting.

Article 193. An accounting office employed by the Corporation shall have the following rights:

(i) the right of access at all times to the account books, records or vouchers of the Corporation and the right to require directors, the manager and other senior officials of the Corporation to provide the relevant information and explanations;

(ii) the right to require the Corporation to take all reasonable measures to obtain from its subsidiaries the information and explanations necessary for the accounting office to perform its duties; and

(iii) the right to attend shareholders' meeting, receive a notice or other information concerning any meetings of or concerning which shareholders have a right to receive a notice or other information, and to be heard at any shareholders' meetings on any matter which relates to it as the accounting office of the Corporation.

Article 194. If the position of accounting office becomes vacant, the board of directors may appoint an accounting office to fill such vacancy before a shareholders' general meeting is held. However, if there are other accounting offices holding the position of accounting office of the Corporation while such vacancy still exists, such accounting offices shall continue to act.

Article 195. The shareholders' general meeting may, by means of an ordinary resolution, dismiss any accounting office prior to the expiration of its term of employment, notwithstanding anything in the contract between the accounting office and the Corporation, but without prejudice to such accounting office's right, if any, to claim damages from the Corporation in respect of such dismissal.

Article 196. The remuneration or method of remuneration of an accounting office shall be decided upon by the shareholders' general meeting. The remuneration of an accounting office employed by the board of directors shall be determined by the board of directors.

Article 197. The employment, dismissal or refusal of the renewal of the employment of an accounting office shall be decided upon by the shareholders' general meeting and reported to the State Council authorities in charge of securities for the record.

The employment of an accounting office to fill the vacancy of the position of accounting office, or renewal of an accounting office that is employed by the board of director to fill the vacancy or dismiss an accounting office before its term expires shall be decided upon by the resolution of the shareholders' meeting in accordance with following regulations:

(i) the proposal of employment or dismissal shall be sent to the accounting office to be employed or has left the post in relevant accounting year before the notice of the shareholders' meeting is delivered.

Leaving the post includes dismissal, resignation and retirement.

(ii) Where the accounting office that is about to leave the post makes any written statement and requires the Corporation to notify the statement to the shareholder, the Corporation shall adopt following measures unless the statement is received too late:

a. stating that the accounting office to leave the post has made statement on the notice issued for making a resolution;

b. sending the copy of the statement as appendix to the notice to shareholders in the means prescribed by the Articles of Association.

(iii) Where the Corporation fails to send out the accounting office's statement in accordance with (ii) of this article, the accounting office may require the statement to be read in shareholders' meeting and further appeal can be made.

(iv) the accounting office that has left its post is entitled to attend following meeting:

(a) shareholders' meeting that is due within its term;

(b) shareholders' meeting that is held to fill the vacancy caused by its dismissal; and/or

(c) shareholders' meeting that is called due to its resignation.

The accounting office that has left its post is entitled to receive all notice or other relevant information of the above mentioned meeting and speak on the matters related to its position of accounting office of the Corporation in above mentioned meeting.

Article 198.When the Corporation dismisses or does not renew the employment of an accounting office, it shall give advance notice to the accounting office. The accounting office shall have the right to present its views before the shareholders' general meeting. Where an accounting office tenders its resignation, it shall inform the shareholders' general meeting of whether there is any irregularity in the Corporation.

An accounting office may resign by delivering its written notice of resignation to the legal address of the Corporation. The notice shall come into effect as of the date that the notice is delivered to the legal address of the Corporation or any later date stated in the notice. The notice shall include following:

(i) statement to express that its resignation does not involve any circumstances that need to be explained to the shareholders or creditors of the Corporation; or

(ii) statement of any circumstance that need to be explained.

The Corporation shall, within fourteen days after receiving above mentioned notices, send the copy of the notice to relevant regulatory organization. Where the notice is written with statement mentioned in (ii) of above paragraph, the Corporation shall keep a copy of the statement in the Corporation for the shareholders to review. The Corporation shall also send a copy of above-mentioned statement by e-mail or prepaid mail to the holders of foreign investment shares listed outside the People's Republic of China at the recipient's address shown in the register of shareholders.

Where the notice of dismissal of the accounting office is written with any statement of circumstance that needs to be explained, the accounting office may require the board of directors to call an interim shareholders' meeting to hear its explanation of circumstance that is related to the dismissal.

CHAPTER 17 INSURANCE

Article 199 The various types of insurance of the Corporation shall be covered by an insurance Corporation that is registered in China and allowed by the laws of China to provide insurance business to the companies of China.

Article 200.The types of insurance, the insured amount, the period of insurance and other insurance clauses shall be discussed and determined by the board of directors according to the practices of similar companies in other countries and the convention of China as well as requirements of the laws.

CHAPTER 18 LABOR MANAGEMENT

Article 201.The Corporation shall establish labor management, personnel management, salary, welfare and social insurance according to relevant provisions of the laws of China.

Article 202.The Corporation adopts appointment system to managers and contract system to general staff. The Corporation may decide staffing independently and shall have the right to recruit and dismiss managers and staff in accordance with relevant laws and regulations.

Article 203.The Corporation is entitled to independently decide the salary and welfare of the managers and other staff within the scope prescribed by relevant administrative regulations according to the Corporation's economic returns.

Article 204.The Corporation shall pay various insurance in accordance with relevant provisions of the laws and regulations of China.

CHAPTER 19 LABOR UNION ORGANIZATION

Article 205.The staff of the Corporation shall have the right to establish a labor union organization according to Labor Union Law of PRC to perform union activities. The labor union's activities shall be carried out outside working hours unless otherwise prescribed by the board of directors.

CHAPTER 20 MERGER AND DIVISION

Article 206.The merger or division of the Corporation shall require the preparation of a proposal by the board of directors. After such proposal has been adopted in accordance with the procedures specified in the Articles of Association of the Corporation, relevant examination and approval procedures shall be carried out according to law. Shareholders that oppose such proposal on the merger or division of the Corporation shall have the right to require the Corporation or shareholders that are in favor of such proposal to purchase their shares at a fair price. The contents of resolutions approving the merger or division of the Corporation shall be compiled in a special document for inspection by shareholders. Holders of foreign investment shares listed outside the People's Republic of China of companies that are listed in Hong Kong shall be served copies of the above-mentioned document by e-mail or prepaid mail to the recipient's address shown in the register of shareholders.

Article 207.Merger of the Corporation may take the form of merger by absorption and merger by new establishment.

As for a corporate merger, both parties to the merger shall conclude an agreement with each other and formulate balance sheets and an inventory of properties. The companies involved shall, within ten days as of making the decision of merger, notify the creditors, and shall make a public announcement on a newspaper within 30 days. The creditors may, within 30 days as of the receipt of the notice or within 45 days as of the issuance of the public announcement if it fails to receive a notice, require the Corporation to clear off its debts or to provide corresponding guarantees.

Upon completion of the merger, the Corporation that exists or the newly established Corporation shall succeed to the claims and debts of the parties to the merger.

Article 208. If the Corporation is to be divided, its assets shall be divided accordingly.

For division of the Corporation, the parties to the division shall enter into a division agreement and prepare balance sheets and an asset list. The Corporation shall notify its creditors within a period of 10 days from the date on which the division resolution is passed and publish newspaper announcements on the division within 30 days of that date.

Debts owed by the Corporation prior to the division shall be assumed by the companies in existence after the division in accordance with the agreement reached.

Article 209. Where the merger or division of the Corporation involves a change in registered particulars, such change shall be registered with the Corporation registry according to law. Where the Corporation is dissolved, it shall cancel its registration according to law. Where a new Corporation is established, its establishment shall be registered according to law.
